1. The Bank shall have a Nomination Committee consisting of one representative for each of the four largest, in terms of votes in the Bank, shareholders, or group of shareholders according to item 2 below, who wish to appoint a representative, and the Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Nomination Committee shall be formed based on the records of the Euroclear Sweden AB register as per 31 August 2011 and other reliable ownership information that has been provided to the Bank by that time. In this respect a group of shareholders shall be considered as one single shareholder if they (i) have been classified as a group of shareholders in the Euroclear Sweden AB register or (ii) have announced and declared to the Bank in writing that they have agreed in writing to take a long-term common view with regard to the management of the Bank by exercising their voting rights in concert.
3. In the event one or more of the shareholders who have appointed members to the Nomination Committee, should cease to belong to the group of four shareholders controlling the largest number of votes, and such event occurs earlier than two months before the AGM, the member appointed by such shareholder shall resign from the Committee. Instead, the replacing shareholder or shareholders in the group comprising the four shareholders controlling the largest number of votes shall, following contacts with the Chairman of the Nomination Committee, have the right to appoint its

5. The Nomination Committee shall otherwise discharge any functions or assignments which are incumbent on the Nomination Committee under the terms of the Swedish Code of Corporate Governance. Upon the request of the Nomination Committee, the Bank shall put at the Committee's disposal staff resources, such as secretarial functions for the Committee, to facilitate the Committee's work. If required, the Bank shall also bear such reasonable expenses for external advisers that the Nomination Committee deems necessary for the due discharge of the Committee's assignments.

The Nomination Committee motivated account for the proposals for Directors

As a basis for its proposals, the Nomination Committee has had access to information on the Bank's activities and financial and strategic position provided by the Chairman of the Board and by Urban Jansson, additional member to the Nomination Committee. The Nomination Committee has also reviewed the results of the evaluation made of the Board and the board work as well as of the Chairman of the Board. The Nomination Committee has assessed to what extent the present Board meets the requirements that will be put on the Board as a result of the Bank's position and future direction. The size of the Board as well as composition, in terms of e.g. industry experience, expertise and diversity has been discussed.

The Nomination Committee is of the opinion that Johan H. Andresen, Jr. being independent in relation to the bank and its management as well as in relation to major shareholders, will add both experience and expertise to the Board of Directors.

The Nomination Committee is furthermore of the opinion that the proposed Board meets the requirements that will be put on the Board as a result of the Bank's position and future direction.

In addition, the Nomination Committee has discussed the independence of the Directors. The proposal for the composition of the Board meets both the requirements of NasdaqOMX Stockholm and the rules of the Swedish Code of Corporate Governance as regards independence of Directors.
