

SEB's CFO Masih Yazdi returns from leave of absence

Masih Yazdi will return from his leave of absence and resume his position as SEB's Chief Financial Officer and member of the Group Executive Committee.

Peter Kessiakoff, who has been Acting CFO during Masih Yazdi's leave of absence, will resume his previous position as CFO of SEB's division Corporate & Private Customers. The changes are effective immediately.

"I am very glad to welcome Masih back and want to thank Peter for his dedicated and excellent work during this time," says Johan Torgeby, SEB's President and CEO.
