Where you have selected Individual Segregation Futures Client Services will contact you to discuss operational arrangements and agree upon an on-boarding plan and timeline to transfer to an individually segregated account.

Please Note: EMIR requires you specify your account choice in writing. Once you have specified your account choice in writing, please sign and return to us a scanned copy at the details set out above. While SEB awaits your written confirmation we shall continue to hold and manage your account under the Segregated Omnibus model. Should you specify on this Election Form the Segregated Omnibus model for the relevant market(s), no further action is required from you, once we have received your signed Form. Should your requirements change in the future and you wish to switch to the Individual Segregation model, you should contact us as you will be required to complete a new Election Form confirming your choice and we will discuss the requirements for the Individual Segregation account model to be set up.
